

Steven ("J.T.") Washington, Esq.

Steven "J.T." Washington is an Associate in the Las Vegas office of Littler Mendelson, where he counsels management on labor and employment matters. Prior to joining Littler, J.T. worked at a regional firm, where his practice focused on general litigation and employment law matters. Previously, J.T. served as a law clerk in the Eighth Judicial District Court for the Hon. Timothy C. Williams and Hon. T. Arthur Ritchie.

Mr. Washington is a graduate of William S. Boyd School of Law at University of Nevada, Las Vegas (J.D.) and has a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, magna cum laude, from University of Nevada, Las Vegas. During law school he was awarded the Dean's Award and the Western Region National Black Law Students Association "Brother in Service Award."

He currently serves as Membership Chair for the LVNBA. He is also a board member for Best Buddies, Boys Town Nevada, and Vice Chair of Nevada Rise Academy, a local charter school.