

Cheyenne Kidd, Esq. Bio

Cheyenne was born and raised in Las Vegas, NV where she graduated as a member of the inaugural class of the Justice & Advocacy Academy at Faith Lutheran High School. Following her graduation, Cheyenne made the 19-hour drive to Fort Worth, Texas to attend Texas Christian University. At TCU she graduated Magna Cum Laude with Bachelors degrees in Criminal Justice and Sociology as well as an emphasis in Comparative Race and Ethnic Studies.

The humidity proved too much to bear so in 2019, Cheyenne made her way back to her hometown to attend the UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law where she graduated with Pro Bono Honors in 2022. While in law school Cheyenne volunteered as both a community service student and Educator at the Kids Court School, which educates children who will be called as witnesses about the court system. Additionally, Cheyenne was selected to be a Student Attorney in both the Education Advocacy and the Mediation Clinics. As a Student Attorney in the Education Advocacy Clinic, Cheyenne advocated for special education rights and ensuring that disabled children received their mandated services. In the Mediation Clinic, after completing a 40-hour mediation training, Cheyenne also mediated various divorce proceedings.

Cheyenne acts as an advocate for parties in their hardest moments as an Associate Attorney at Sgro & Roger, practicing primarily in the Family Law department and in Civil Litigation. When not at work, Cheyenne enjoys reading, going to her nephew's baseball games and watching reality television.
