

Maliq Kendricks, Esq.

Maliq Kendricks is an associate at Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck and focuses his practice on corporate law and commercial litigation. Prior to joining Brownstein, Maliq practiced at Hutchison & Steffen in Las Vegas, specializing in business and commercial disputes related to partnerships, merchandise sales, licensing, construction and real estate. He clerked with Judge Cristina D. Silva and was a summer law clerk with Judge Elizabeth Gonzalez, both at the Eighth Judicial District Court.

In 2019, Maliq simultaneously graduated from the William S. Boyd School of Law at UNLV with a Juris Doctor, and also from UNLV with a Master of Education in Curriculum Instruction. In 2016, Maliq earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science with a focus in International Relations from Tuskegee University.

Aside from his diverse professional experiences in teaching, negotiating, and advocating, Maliq serves as the Corresponding Secretary of the Las Vegas National Bar Association and Secretary for the Construction Law Section for the State Bar of Nevada.
