

Augusta Massey, Esq.

Ms. Massey is a Judge Pro Tempore, Small Claims Court, located in Clark County, Nevada, and sits on the Nevada Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. She is also the Managing Partner of Massey & Associates Law Firm, PLLC, where she assists clients with legal matters. She was recently honored as the Liberty Bell award recipient by the Clark County Law Foundation and honored as an iconic Woman of Distinction by the National Association of Women Business Owners. She has also been named as one of the Top 100 Lawyers in Las Vegas (for five consecutive years), a Top 40 under 40 by Vegas, Inc. and the National Bar Association, and the 2019 recipient of the Las Vegas Urban Chamber of Commerce's Women in Business & Politics Award.

Ms. Massey is the immediate past president of the Las Vegas Chapter of the National Bar Association, where she raised over $80,000 to support minority law students at UNLV's Boyd School of Law, and actively involved with the State Bar of Nevada, where she received the 2021 Volunteer of the Year award at their annual conference on Coronado Island, CA. She has also served as a mentor and/or employer with the Summer Business Institute for almost ten years and as a TIP Mentor with the State Bar of Nevada for newly admitted lawyers. Ms. Massey also gives talks to the youth and entrepreneurial communities about self-actualization, overcoming adversity, and personal development for women leaders, and helps business owners through her books and self-study courses.

Ms. Massey received her B.A. in English, summa cum laude, from The University of Memphis and her Juris Doctor from the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, where she was awarded several scholarships including the Nelson Mandela Law Scholarship, Kathryn Hookanson Law Scholarship, and the Constangy, Brooks & Smith Diversity Law Scholarship for the State of Tennessee. When she's not working or volunteering, Ms. Massey loves to dance, travel, fence and spend time with her family.
