

Alco Robinson

Born and raised in Washington, D.C., Alco Robinson is a proud Las Vegas transplant who recently returned to the city after spending eight years in northern California. Alco is a part-time 1L student at William S. Boyd School of Law. She is a member of the Black Law Student Association and the Sports and Entertainment Law Association.

Alco works full-time as a legal assistant in the Regulatory department at AT&T. Alco is responsible for triaging California legislative bills to determine how the bills may affect AT&T and its affiliates, and helps the company navigate the legislative sessions. Alco also provides paralegal support on a pro bono case as part of a collaboration between AT&T and the Equal Justice Initiative.

Alco received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Politics with a minor in Criminal Justice from the University of San Francisco. In her free time Alco enjoys, reading, trying new eating places, spending time with her family and friends, traveling, and shopping.
