

Karyna Armstrong, Esq.

Karyna is an associate at McDonald Carano LLP in their Las Vegas office where she is a part of their litigation practice group. Karyna received her undergraduatedegree from Boise State University; her master'sdegree from the University of Miami, FL; and her law degree from William S. Boyd School of Law. Karyna serves as our social media committee chair. In this position she works on building connections with members of our community through social media and informing the public of events and service LVNBA is participating in and providing.