

Renee Becker, Esq.

Renee Becker is Associate General Counsel, Securities and Assistant Secretary at Opendoor Technologies Inc., a Silicon Valley-based technology company focused on residential real estate. Ms. Becker oversees all matters related to the Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations, the Nasdaq Stock Exchange, corporate governance and major corporate transactions, such as Opendoor's recent initial public offering, its follow-on public offerings and issuance of corporate bonds. Ms. Becker works closely with the company's executive leadership team and Board of Directors as a trusted advisor to assist the company in meeting its strategic objectives.

Prior to joining Opendoor, Ms. Becker was Chief Counsel, Corporate & Securities and Assistant Secretary at Caesars Entertainment Corporation where she led the corporate legal team through to series of complex corporate transactions to successfully exit the company from Chapter 11 bankruptcy in 2017. For her efforts, she was awarded the Corporate Leadership Award from the John M. Langston Bar Association of Los Angeles and the Corporate Governance Team of the Year Award for Large Cap Companies from Corporate Secretary Magazine.

Prior to Caesars Entertainment, Ms. Becker was a Corporate Partner at the law firm of Manatt, Phelps & Phillips in Los Angeles for 16 years where she focused on corporate securities and mergers & acquisitions. She began her legal career as a corporate securities associate at McGuireWoods in Tysons Corner, Virginia.

Ms. Becker is a member of the Board of Advisors of the UNLV Justice Michael L. Douglas Pre-Law Fellowship Program. She serves as Chair of the Mentorship Committee of the Las Vegas Chapter of the National Bar Association. She is also a lifetime member of the Black Women Lawyers Bar Association of Los Angeles. She is certified to practice law in the State of Nevada and is a member of the California State Bar Association.

Ms. Becker is a graduate of Stanford Law School and The Ohio State University where she majored in French and economics.
